A WARM WELCOME

to the AMERON Berlin ABION Spreebogen Waterside

The central but quiet location makes the AMERON Berlin ABION Spreebogen Waterside the ideal starting point for city and business trips.

It offers a special setting for business events as well - due to eight extraordinary conference rooms in an industrial ambience of the old Meierei Bolle and two impressive halls for events up to 750 people in the front part of the building.

Our professional team will be happy to assist you with the entire planning of your individual event - starting with the enquiry, through catering & service to final invoicing.

As part of the AMERON Collection, we also place great value on our culinary offerings. Regionality, in-house production and creativity are our top priorities.

FORMER DAIRY

Like Berlin itself, the hotel has a unique history.

The building from 1890, directly next to the River Spree, was dedicated by the last German Empress and was once a dairy, a milk factory. From this place, entire Berlin and the surrounding area were supplied with milk & dairy products.

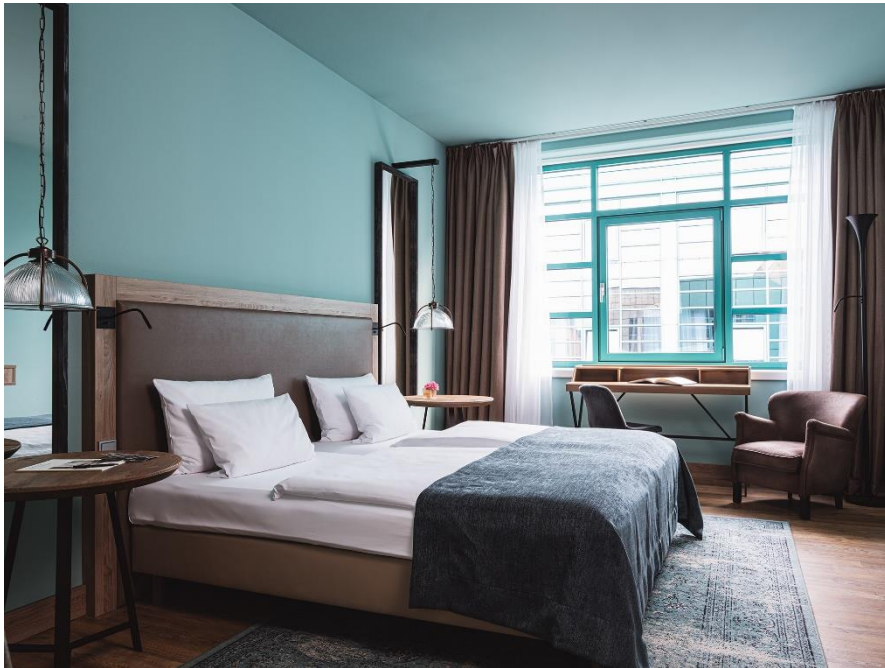

Today, exciting contrasts face each other in this venue, old and new melt into an exciting and contemporary industrial-style design, telling the story of the past for capacities of up to 180 people.
